

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Misses Martha and Josephine Clarke have returned to the city, after spending some time in the North. The Misses Clarke recently spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A. Roop, as guests at their cottage at Bay Head, N. J.

Misses Harriet and Katherine Gunn, of West Franklin Street, are also among the Richmond people who have been at Bay Head for some time past.

On Tuesday, at high noon, in Boynton, the marriage of Miss Patti Love Jones, of that place, and Luther Campbell Lindsey, of Manassas, was quietly celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hicks Jones. Only near relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Charles E. Sydney, rector of St. James' parish. The wedding marches and selections from Dvorak and Engelmann were played by Mrs. Hattie Stokes Edmonson, and the parson was decorated with ferns and wild flowers and lighted with many candles. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a blue traveling gown, with a modish hat to match, and carried a white prayerbook with markings of the color. She was met at the altar by the groom, who was given away by his brother, who was a blue traveling gown, with a modish hat to match, and carried a white prayerbook with markings of the color. She was met at the altar by the groom, who was given away by his brother, who was a blue traveling gown, with a modish hat to match, and carried a white prayerbook with markings of the color.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey left for the mountains of North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon. On September 3 they will be at home in Norton, where the groom holds the position as principal of the Norton schools.

Married in Washington.
Miss Maude Estelle Pittman, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Pittman, of this city, was married in Washington to Omah P. Farrar, of Farmville, the ceremony taking place on Tuesday, August 26. After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Farrar will make their home in Farmville.

Attractive House Party.
The Misses Allen, of Hebron, are entertaining a house party this week at their summer home, "Dogwood," near their home. Among their guests are Misses Mary and Ruth Armstrong, of Petersburg; Laura and Virginia Anderson, of Farmville; Annie Edmondson, and Mamie Baird, of Chambersburg; Stephen, of Scotland; C. C. Mary and Julia Allen, of Norfolk; William Armstrong, of Petersburg; Ben Ames, Jr., Samuel Allen, of Norfolk; Jack Davis, of Danville; Edward Williams and Aubrey Allen, of Hebron.

A number of affairs have been given for the Misses Allen and their guests, notable among which have been a reception on Wednesday evening and a hay ride on Thursday.

Engagement Announced.
The Rev. and Mrs. John T. Payne, of Cumberland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nellie Louise, to Dr. E. H. Connelley, of Albemarle. The marriage will be celebrated at the Cumberland Church, in Cumberland, some time early in the fall.

In the Mountains.
Mrs. John R. Beadles and her little daughter, Frances, and Hunter Beadles, of Highland Park, left Tuesday for the mountains, where they will spend the remainder of the season. They were accompanied by Mrs. Beadles' sister, Mrs. C. E. Bowie, and her two children, of Petersburg.

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Miss Marbury.
Says the Baltimore Sun of yesterday: "Miss Katherine Marshall Marbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall Marbury, was married to Henry Contee Bowie Claggett, of Washington, at Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Upper Marlboro, Md., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William L. Davies, of Washington, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends."

"The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Marbury, of Baltimore."

Saturday Glove Special

In offering these Gloves at this special price we stand behind them just the same as if they were sold at the original price of $1.00.

Pure triple woven silk, with double finger tips, reinforced seams. Special, 60c.

Kaufmann & Co.

timore. She wore an exquisite gown of white satin charmeuse, combined with old family lace, a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Valerie Marbury, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and the two little pieces of the groom, Miss Ida and Amanda Claggett, were the flower girls. Charles Claggett was his brother's best man.

"A reception followed at Yarrow, the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Claggett will sail for Europe next week and spend several months traveling on the Continent. On their return they will live in Washington. Among those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Fendall, Miss Mary Gertrude Fendall, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Horace S. Whitman, Miss Ella Slingluff and Frank S. Whitman and William L. Marbury, Jr."

The bride has a great many relatives living in Richmond and throughout this State.

Hay Ride.
Lathin Gordon, of Richmond, gave a hay ride to his son, Robert, in Waynesboro Thursday in honor of his birthday. Among the guests were: Ernest Mosby, Lucille and Virginia Coleman, Marjorie Haskins, Lydia Spright, Elizabeth and Thos. C. E. Starke, Burton Deckart, Mary Dalmatry, Tom Dalmatry, David Lundman, Marlan Leakey, Eleanor Williams, Alice Williams, Mary Williams, Elwell Maxwell, John Kohler, John Murphy, Joe Molton, Elliott Fishburne, Ann Holt, Carter Holt, Cullen Chew and Hugh Mercer Blaine.

To Spend Winter in New York.
Edward M. Irby, of Blackstone, was in the city yesterday, en route for Yonkers, N. Y., where he will attend school this year, taking up civil engineering as a specialty. Mr. Irby is well known here in the younger society set, having spent the past two years here at Richmond College, where he has been very social.

Chesterfield Chapter Meeting.
The Chesterfield Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold an important call meeting this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the waiting-room at Miller & McDonald on Broad Street. All members are urged to attend, as the plans for the annual picnic of the Chesterfield Chapter on September 11 must be arranged.

In and Out of Town.
Colonel and Mrs. J. Rice Smith, who have been in Richmond for some time past, are leaving to-day for Derryville, where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. F. S. Bullington and Ernest and William Bullington, of Highland Park, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Raiford, in Sedley.

Robert V. Funsten, of Boise, Idaho, is spending several days with E. L. Fletcher at 6 West Franklin Street, en route for the University of Virginia.

Mrs. L. J. Hall, of Danville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morris, in this city.

E. T. D. Myers, Jr., has returned to the city, after spending the summer in the mountains.

Mrs. Theodore Russell, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Russell, in Richmond.

William Roberts, of Norwood, is the guest of his father, in this city, for a short stay.

Misses Kate Hess and Ella Christine have returned to their home in Bethlehem, Pa., after a visit to Mrs. C. B. Hess, at 2404 Floyd Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dorsey Snyder have returned from a trip to Atlantic City.

Mrs. H. W. Elliott, and Miss Louise Elliott, who have been visiting Mrs. Elliott in Pluvanna and Louisa, have returned to the city.

Mrs. Edward Cooper and her children, of this city, are guests of Mrs. Charles Spencer, in Newport News.

Mrs. Pleasant and her granddaughter, Miss Page Pleasant, who have been visiting the Misses Davis, in Scottsville, have returned to Richmond.

Bryan Merritt, of this city, is spending two weeks in Norfolk and at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. C. I. Glenn has as her guests for this week: Mr. P. M. Pettit, of Shores; William Glenn, of Vinita; Marvin Roberts, of Norwood, and Mr. Wiltshire, of Alabama.

Miss Nancy Lee Janney has gone to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for a short stay.

Mrs. Elmslie Higgenbotham and Miss Virginia Tyler, of this city, are guests of Mrs. Wheat, at "Morgan Springs," near Berryville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Southard have returned to the city, after a visit to Natural Bridge and Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bass, who have been visiting Miss P. J. Glenn at Vinita for two weeks, have returned to Richmond.

Mrs. C. F. Collins, Jr., of Fredericksburg, is spending a week with relatives in this city.

Miss Dorothy Graves and Conkey Graves, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. W. P. Graves, in Williamsburg.

Miss Bessie Morgan, of Charlotte County, is visiting relatives in Richmond this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Williams have returned to the city, after a visit to Hanover Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Meeks, who are now visiting in Lexington, will come to Richmond within the next few days.

Misses Elizabeth and Dolly Adam and Bessie Cardwell have returned from Wilson Springs and Rockbridge County, where they have been for the past month.

R. W. Holmes, of Williamsburg, has returned to his home, after a short stay here.

Miss Virginia Lovelace, of Houston, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frazier, in this city.

Miss Louise Finch, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Katharine

Doyle, in Lynchburg, has returned to her home here.

Mrs. H. C. Dow and small daughter, Ruth, have returned to Fredericksburg, after a short visit here.

Miss Stella Owen, of South Richmond, is spending a week at the home of P. W. Cook, near Charlotte Court-House.

Mrs. J. H. Garrett, of this city, is the guest of relatives in Clover for several days.

Called to Colorado.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., August 29.—O. B. Barker, president of Barker-Jennings Hardware Company, has gone to Colorado Springs, having been called there by his wife, who notified him of the serious illness of their son, Frank, who has been living there since the death of the ill son has been living in Colorado on account of his health.

Doyle, in Lynchburg, has returned to her home here.

Mrs. H. C. Dow and small daughter, Ruth, have returned to Fredericksburg, after a short visit here.

Miss Stella Owen, of South Richmond, is spending a week at the home of P. W. Cook, near Charlotte Court-House.

Mrs. J. H. Garrett, of this city, is the guest of relatives in Clover for several days.

Called to Colorado.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., August 29.—O. B. Barker, president of Barker-Jennings Hardware Company, has gone to Colorado Springs, having been called there by his wife, who notified him of the serious illness of their son, Frank, who has been living there since the death of the ill son has been living in Colorado on account of his health.

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

Lead Poisoning Causes Death.
Harrisonburg, Va., August 29.—Lead poisoning contracted while following his trade caused the death at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of William E. Rhodes, forty-five years old, a well-known painter of the neighborhood of Hinton, Rockingham County. When he was taken ill several weeks ago it was thought that he was suffering from

WANTS TO STOP RIGHT TO SELL INTOXICANTS

Lloyd George Seeks to Abolish Wine Privileges of Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

BY LA MARQUE DE FONTENAY.
LLOYD GEORGE, the English Chancellor of the Exchequer, is endeavoring to do away with one of the most time-honored privileges of the two great Universities of Oxford and Cambridge: a bit of news